

1. Privacy Policy

Information We Collect

We may collect information you voluntarily provide through our website, including your name, email address, telephone number, information submitted through contact forms, and information included in communications. Please do not submit sensitive medical information through a general website contact form unless specifically instructed.

Automatically Collected Information

We may automatically collect technical information such as IP address, browser and device type, pages visited, date/time, and referring website.

Cookies and Analytics

Our website may use cookies or similar technologies. We may use third-party analytics services such as, but not limited to, Google Analytics.

How We Use Information

Information may be used to respond to inquiries, facilitate appointments, provide requested information, improve the website, maintain security, and communicate regarding services.

Protected Health Information

Information collected or maintained as part of treatment may constitute protected health information (PHI) and is subject to applicable privacy laws and our Notice of Privacy Practices. This website Privacy Policy does not replace the HIPAA Notice.

Third-Party Services

The website may link to or integrate with scheduling, payment, patient portal, telehealth, or other third-party services. We are not responsible for third-party privacy practices.

Security

We use reasonable safeguards designed to protect website information, but no internet transmission or electronic storage system can be guaranteed completely secure.

Children's Privacy

The website is not intended to knowingly collect personal information directly from children without appropriate parental or guardian involvement.

2. Notice of Privacy Practices (HIPAA)

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW
MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU
MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS

INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

How We May Use and Disclose PHI

Treatment: We may use and disclose health information to provide, coordinate, or manage healthcare. Payment: We may use and disclose information to obtain payment. Healthcare Operations: We may use and disclose information for activities necessary to operate the practice and provide quality care. We may also use or disclose information when permitted or required by applicable law.

Uses Requiring Authorization

Certain uses and disclosures may require written authorization. You may revoke an authorization in writing to the extent permitted by law.

Your Rights

You generally have rights to request access or copies, request amendments, request certain restrictions, request confidential communications, receive an accounting of certain disclosures, and receive a copy of this Notice, subject to applicable legal limitations.

Our Responsibilities

We are required to maintain PHI privacy, provide this Notice, follow its terms, and provide breach notifications as required by law.

Questions or Complaints

Contact [privacy contact/email/phone].
You may also file a complaint with HHS
Office for Civil Rights. You will not be retaliated against for filing a complaint.

Acknowledgment

Patients will be asked to acknowledge receipt during onboarding.

Acknowledgment does not constitute consent to treatment or authorization for uses/disclosures of PHI.

3. Website Terms of Use

Informational Purposes

